

Short questions for BA Sem-ii [HC] Paper 2.2 : Political Process in India.

A. Fill in the blanks:

1. Indian political system is characterised by both nationalism and -----.
Ans. Regionalism.
2. The Unitarian spirit of the Indian Constitution is designed to check the forces of undue---
Regionalism.
3. In positive sense regionalism means a ----- for a region to which a citizen belongs.
Ans. Natural love.
4. Negative Regionalism takes place when citizens give preference to their regional interests over the ----- .
Ans. National interest and needs.
5. The worst and most harmful form of regionalism is -----.
Ans. Secessionism.
6. The principle of ----- is a manifestation of Regionalism.
Ans. Sons of the soil.

B. Answer the following as directed.

1. In which year the State of Meghalaya was formed out of Assam ?
Ans. 1969.
2. In 2000, the State of Jharkhand was created out of which state?
Ans. Bihar.
3. In 2000, the State of Uttarakhand was created out of which state?
Ans. Uttar Pradesh.
4. In 2000, the State of Chhatisgarh was created out of which state?
Ans. Madhya Pradesh.
5. Write a name of the important Regional Political Parties in North East India?
Ans. AGP.

Corrigendum: The class notes uploaded on 04.05.2020 in the college portal, titled as 'Indian Govt. and Politics' indicated in the 'SUBJECT' column as Political science[HC] are actually meant for Political science[RC and HG] of BA Sem-ii.