

Q. No. 1. Caracteristics of teaching aids- What are the characteristics of teaching aids?

Ans:- - Teaching aids are devices which help in simplifying the complexity of teaching. It makes the abstract thought made concrete. It gives training of the senses. It motivates learning. It creates playful situation. It saves time and effort. It serves individual need. It solves disciplinary problems. It is helpful for mass education.

① simplicity - removing complexity of teaching

② concreteness - Abstract thought made concrete

③ student participation - Students involvement in learning

④ removal of misconception - Removing misconception from mind

⑤ training of the senses - Gives training of the Senses

⑥ motivation - Motivates learning

⑦ economy - creates playful situation

⑧ economy of time and effort

⑨ serving individual need

⑩ solving disciplinary problems

⑪ Helpful for mass education

Q. No. 2. Teaching aids - what is teaching aids:-

Ans:- - Teaching aids are devices which help in simplifying the complexity of teaching. It makes the abstract thought made concrete. It gives training of the senses. It motivates learning. It creates playful situation. It saves time and effort. It serves individual need. It solves disciplinary problems. It is helpful for mass education.

Q. No. 3. Teaching aids - What are the uses of teaching aids?

Ans:- - Teaching aids are devices which help in simplifying the complexity of teaching. It makes the abstract thought made concrete. It gives training of the senses. It motivates learning. It creates playful situation. It saves time and effort. It serves individual need. It solves disciplinary problems. It is helpful for mass education.

Q. No. 4. Teaching aids - What are the types of teaching aids?